Bal Harbour Grows Art Program September - December, 2016

Unscripted Bal Harbour debuts Chicago partnership curates 70th anniversary & gears up for Art Basel Miami Beach.

For immediate release, Miami, June 19, 2016: Entering its 5th year Unscripted Bal Harbour, Bal Harbour Village's art program, expands key programming and partnerships to give Bal Harbour residents and guests increased access to art events in Miami and regionally. In addition to free access to 13 key art institutions in Miami as part of its Art Access program, Unscripted Bal Harbour offers a refreshing series of topical art talks by sought after art experts, tours to museums and collectors homes', as well as the first Chicago fair art trip opportunity in lead up to the array of activities planned during Art Basel Miami Beach. These activities will take place from September-December, 2016 under the guidance of Unscripted Bal Harbour curator Claire Breukel and the Unscripted Bal Harbour advisory team Lisa Austin, Rocio Aranda Alvarado and Meredith Johnson.

Launched in 2015, the ArtFocus program kicks off in early September with an intimate interactive discussion about "Buying and Selling at Auction" with auction house experts Vivian Pfeiffer and Maria Bonta de la Pezuela who together have more than 40 years experience working at Christies and Sotheby's respectively. Bal Harbour residents and guests are invited to the St Regis Bal Harbour bar for a one on one conversation with these experts.

On Monday September 19 at 7:30pm at the iconic Chopin Theater, Unscripted Bal Harbour will be cohosting its first Chicago Art Chat in partnership with a new Miami-based talk series Creative Minds Talks. This talk coincides with the EXPO CHICAGO art fair on view at Chicago's Navy Pier from September 22-25, and will feature EXPO CHICAGO fair director Tony Karman in conversation about the importance of public art to the city's evolving landscape.

September also begins Bal Harbour's 70th anniversary celebrations with an exhibition and art chat by historian Dr. Paul George who is recounting Bal Harbour's impressive history in images and words. The exhibition will be on view at the Bal Harbour's signature Seaview hotel and Dr. George will conduct a presentation of his research.

On October 23 Bal Harbour residents and guests are treated to brunch and a private tour of the NSU Museum | Fort Lauderdale exhibition "Work from the Francie Bishop Good and David Horvitz collection" led by Director and Chief Curator Bonnie
