

MIAMI

12TH ANNIVERSARY ISSUE

THE INCOMPARABLE LAURA DERN

Brighter Than Ever

FEARLESS & FABULOUS
4 Women of Style You Need to Know!

DAY & NIGHT
Glam Fall Fashion Has You Covered

PLUS
Lagerfeld's Last Collection for Fendi, Hot Chef Couples, the Cervera Legacy & More

@MIAMIMAGAZINE
MLMIAMIMAG.COM

on the SCENE

BY MICHAEL MISZOUID

TASTE TACTICS
Haute Cuisine brings European good taste to Bal Harbour.

- 1. Chefs Jacques Pouchel and Sergi Arola in the kitchen for the gala dinner
- 2. Daniel Arias and Guerdy Abaira at Artisan Beach House
- 3. Ramiro and Gina Inguanzo at Oceana
- 4. Gotmar Giron and Gabriel Groisman at Le Zoo
- 5. Guests at dinner at the St. Regis gala
- 6. Fernanda Uesler and Brianna Addolorato modeling Balmain at Le Zoo
- 7. Chef Jean-Baptiste Natali at Oceana

THE OCCASION Michelin moxie made its way to Bal Harbour for Haute Cuisine, a series of dinners to showcase the culinary talents of six international chefs. THE CROWD More than 285 guests, including Bal Harbour Mayor Gabriel Groisman, made their way to the various events led by chefs Jacques Pouchel, Sergi Arola, Thierry Drapeau, Joel Cesari, Jean-Baptiste Natali and Alain Caron, who have nine Michelin stars between them. THE HIGHLIGHTS After dinners at Le Zoo, Oceana Bal Harbour and Artisan Beach House, the epicurean celebration concluded at The St. Regis with a formal gala where all six aforementioned men created the ultimate last supper.

PHOTOS BY WOLFF KNOX LLC