The culinary stars align in Magic City this month with the first edition of Haute Cuisine Bal Harbour.

From May 8 through 11, the exclusive enclave will play host to themed dinners, cooking classes and cocktail receptions with six renowned European toques, including acclaimed French chef Thierry Drapeau (of his eponymous Loire Valley restaurant) and MasterChef Holland judge Alain Caron.

Between bites, rest up at Five-Star The St. Regis Bal Harbour Resort, where on the final night of the four-day fest, you'll enjoy a formal gala on the gorgeous Ocean Terrace, followed by a collaborative dinner presented by all six chefs.
